

INTEGRATED DESIGN

architecture • historical heritage • landscape

The Research Area aims to promote cultural initiatives about project and existing resources valorisation themes, and to carry out scientific researches and design projects.

This multidisciplinary team develops its activity steered to consider present problems and to define study-answers and plans to various scales of intervention and application.

group leader
Antonio Piva

architectural and urban design

research staff
Maria Antonietta Crippa
Pierfranco Galliani
Anna Carola Lorenzetti
Darko Pandakovic
Claudio Chesi

history of architecture
architectural and urban design
town planning landscape architecture science of constructions - DIS laboratories

LAB.PRO – Integrated design Laboratory www.labpro.it

STAM – Laboratory of history and safeguarding of modern architecture

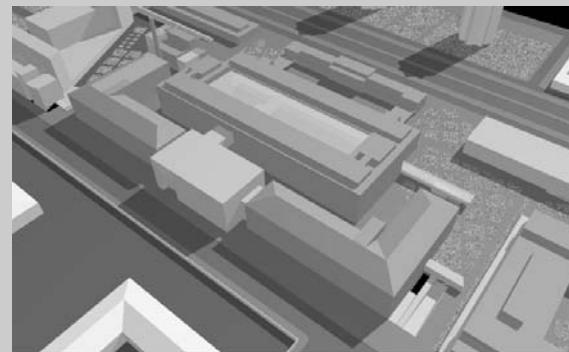

Presentations of the research lines of Integrated Design Area Most significant research products – 2003 / 2007 architecture and urban design

ARCHITECTURAL RECLAIMING AND URBAN DESIGN OF EX MANIFATTURA TABACCHI - MILAN

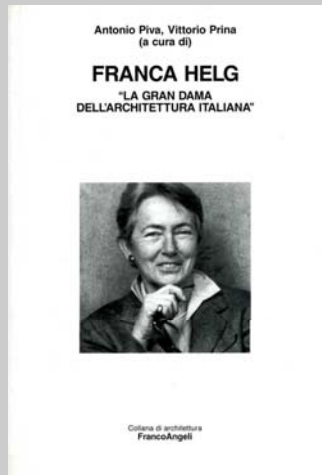

studies and researches

- relationships between architecture and urban design through the main deepening of physical, cultural and social contexts
- project processes to verify the formal and functional innovation of architectural and collective structures with particular regards to the cultural services
- relationships between architecture and politics for the quality of the city and the territorial development

history, safeguarding and reclaiming of modern architecture

ARCHITECTS' ARCHIVES AND CASE-STUDIES OF INNOVATIVE RESTORATION PRINCIPLES

RESTORATION PROJECT OF EX ISTITUTO MARCHIONDI - MILAN

studies and researches

- history of modern architecture according to their innovative peculiarities: composition, tectonics, language and technology
- safeguarding of contemporary architectural heritage: history-critical assessment, cataloguing of architectural works and archives, preliminary studies on conservation and reuse
- project processes about architectural and urban reclaiming with application of procedures suitable for restoration of modern buildings

museography and museology landscape plan as enhancement of existing resources

studies and researches

- _ innovation of the relationships between museography and museology with respect to the technologies applied to contemporary communication and to determination of the architectural space features

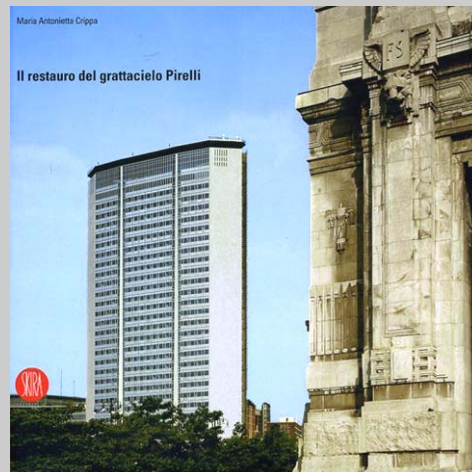

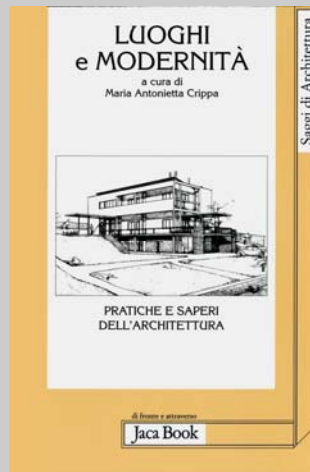

studies and researches

- _ reclaiming and enhancement of historical and modern landscape factors in order to promote public fruition of the complex of the cultural heritage and naturalistic aspect of human environmental

INTEGRATED DESIGN

architecture • historical heritage • landscape

studies and researches

2007

- contemporary relationships between architecture and politics: European contexts
- history of modern architecture, its places and its authors
- restoration processes of modern architecture: Pirelli skyscraper in Milan
- future
- history and design for restoration of twentieth-century architecture
- relationships between history of architecture and project, and between urban design and landscape